Electronic privacy

From time to time the BDA will communicate with its members by email. Such communications may include information relating to BDA products, services and events. You are able to opt out of receiving these communications at any time.

Occasionally the BDA may provide some of this information (excluding 'sensitive personal data') to other organisations for the purposes of ensuring that you get the most from your membership. This will only be done, however, when the BDA has approved by licence or other agreement the way in which those organisations will use the information to enhance the value of BDA membership.

If you do not wish any other organisation to receive any information about you, please tick here

Data Protection Act

The BDA will hold your personal details on its computer database and process it in accordance with the Act. This information may be accessed, reviewed and used by the BDA for administrative purposes (for example, processing your membership) and conducting market research. All of these purposes have been notified to the Information Commissioner. If you are based outside the European Economic Area (EEA), information about you may be transferred outside the EEA in accordance with the requirements of the Act.

If paying by cheque, please provide separate cheques for each of the payments. Assessment fees are non-refundable. Membership fees are processed 'post assessment' as membership is dependent upon an assessor confirming compliance with the BDA Good Practice standard.

The Direct Debit Guarantee

The Direct Debit Guarantee

- This Guarantee is offered by all banks and building societies that accept instructions to pay Direct Debits.
- If there are any changes to the amount, date or frequency of your Direct Debit the British Dental Association will notify you five working days in advance of your account being debited or as otherwise agreed. If you request the British Dental Association to collect a payment, confirmation of the amount and date will be given to you at the time of the request.
- If an error is made in the payment of your Direct Debit, by the British Dental Association or your bank or building society you are entitled to a full and immediate refund of the amount paid from your bank or building society.
- If you receive a refund you are not entitled to, you must pay it back when the British Dental Association asks you to.
- You can cancel a Direct Debit at any time by simply contacting your bank or building society. Written confirmation may be required. Please also notify us.
