Phil Ower
Specialist in Periodontics, PerioCourses Ltd

Phil qualified from King’s London in 1978. He joined the RAF after qualifying and was a general dental practitioner until taking an MSc in Periodontology in 1992, after which he was RAF Adviser in Periodontology and ran the RAF School of Dental Hygiene. After leaving the RAF in 1996 he lectured at the Eastman Dental Institute and worked in several specialist practices. For 10 years he worked alongside the renowned Bernie Kieser at the Periodontal Practice in London and now practices exclusively at the Briars Dental Centre in Newbury. He has been an examiner for the Royal College of Surgeons of England (MGDS) and is President of the British Society of Periodontology for 2016. Phil has published widely and has sat on several editorial boards. He is co-editor and co-author of Practical Periodontics, a new undergraduate textbook for the publisher Elsevier. He lectures throughout the UK and internationally.

Ian Dunn
Specialist in Periodontics, PerioCourses Ltd

Ian qualified from Leeds in 1998. He went into NHS general practice after qualifying and was a general dental practitioner for many years. During that time, though a part time teaching role at Liverpool University, he developed a passion for periodontology and concentrated his postgraduate studies and teaching activities on perio whilst maintaining a busy general practice list. This culminated in him pursuing an MSc in periodontology and ultimately becoming the Teaching Lead in Periodontics at Liverpool University and gaining a place on the GDC specialist list in periodontology. Ian continues to maintain a busy referral network on the North West working between Liverpool and Wilmslow. He has been the Honorary Editor and Webmaster for the British Society of Periodontology and lectures nationally through the UK, having spoken at most of the major UK dental conferences.
