BDA HONOURS AND AWARDS CATEGORIES

BDA PRESIDENT (Honour)

This is the highest office in the Association and the most supreme honour which the Association may bestow.

Eligibility and purpose:

- To honour outstanding service to the Association and UK dentistry
- Any member of the Association is eligible for nomination

HONORARY MEMBERSHIP (Honour)

Considered to be one of the Association's highest honours; one which is rarely awarded.

Eligibility and purpose:

- A rare honour, which is often bestowed on dignitaries from overseas dental associations
- Distinguished persons who may or may not be members of the Association or of the dental profession

FELLOWSHIP MEDAL (Honour)

Eligibility and purpose:

- To honour distinguished service to the Association and/or dental profession
- Any ordinary member (including a Life Member) of the Association who has:
 - (a) been for 20 years continuously an ordinary member of the Association, and
 - (b) given exceptional and distinguished service by:
- a sustained, personal commitment to realising the goals of the Association and/or advancing the standing and status of the profession
- gaining the high regard and respect of fellow members of the Association

JOHN TOMES MEDAL (Award)

Eligibility and purpose:

- To honour members of the dental profession or persons distinguished in medical or allied services
- Any person, whether or not otherwise eligible for ordinary membership of the Association
- To honour outstanding services to the dental profession or the Association
- Normally not more than one or two medals would be awarded in one year

LIFE MEMBERSHIP (Honour)

This honour is not usually awarded until after retirement from practice, except in cases of outstanding service.

Eligibility and purpose:

- To honour long and valuable service to the Association, particularly at Branch, Group and local levels, by significant service beyond the regular attendance at meetings and usually by significant representation at national level
- An ordinary member of the Association who has been either:
 - (a) for 25 years continuously a member, or
 - (b) for 10 years continuously a member who has ceased to practice dentistry and holds no paid dental appointment
- It is anticipated that not more than one or two such awards will be made in any one branch or group within one year and will not necessarily be awarded every year
